

voice whether or not there is any voice going on in all the palaver about good eating, e.g. if free school meals mean good eating or if the plump will only remember there's always good eating at a house of representatives surprising that these houses stay together represent all my school friends and their families representing a relatively varied domestic scene not representing very well not representing the enormous failure of resolution in this matter now or any of all other matters each more durable and less resolvable than tinned food or hoax war

bulldozed into voiceless ammunition being like by the way is neither representative nor resolution being liked by the way is not house unless for sin there's some kind of tax and guilt should be felt in both houses as fuzz clinging to feet all over the floor be borne Schuld begilt in another Sinn as we fly to the sun and the golden beaches in tacts sin que none of this would be good eating nor representative voice.
